We do not use SMS messages to collect sensitive personal information. Please DO NOT share sensitive data (e.g., Social Security numbers, financial account details, health information) by text.

3) How We Use Your Information

We use information received via SMS solely to:

- Read and respond to your inbound messages
- Provide customer support or answer questions you initiate
- Maintain records of communications for quality assurance, training, and compliance

We do not send unsolicited promotional texts.

4) Sharing and Disclosure

- We do not sell your personal information.
- We do not share SMS information with third parties for their marketing purposes.
- We may disclose information if required by law, to protect our rights or users, or to service providers that help us deliver and route messages (e.g., telecommunications and messaging infrastructure providers) under agreements that limit their use of the information to providing services to us.

5) Your Choices

6) Data Retention

We retain SMS messages and related metadata only as long as needed to respond to your inquiry and for legitimate business, legal, or compliance purposes. Our standard retention period for SMS records is 12 months, after which we securely delete or anonymize them unless a longer retention period is required by law or to resolve disputes.

7) Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect the information we process via SMS. However, no method of transmission or storage is completely secure, so we cannot guarantee absolute security.

8) Children's Privacy

Our SMS communications are not directed to children under 13 (or the age defined by applicable law), and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children via SMS.

9) International/Regional Processing

Our SMS processing occurs in the United States. If you message us from another region, your information may be transferred to, stored in, and processed in the U.S., where privacy laws may differ from those in your jurisdiction.
